Sarah Byrom

Batley News, 26 Feb 1944 (Birthdays)

Sarah was born on the 27 February 1922, in Birstall, the daughter of Esther Byrom and step daughter of Joseph Whittles who had married her mother in 1926. Lily was born in 1926. The family lived at 1, Kearsley Buildings, Mount Top, Birstall and she was, in 1939, employed as a carpet mender.

Sarah joined the Women's Land Army and went to Cornwall. She died of tuberculous meningitis at West Cornwall Hospital, Penzance on 3 May 1945 and was brought home to Birstall and buried in St. Peters Churchyard on 7 May 1945.

She is remembered with Honour at Batley and Birstall War Memorials.

